

Radiant Communications Appoints Paul Healey Interim President and CEO

Vancouver, Canada, August 25, 2011 - Radiant Communications Corp. (“Radiant”) (TSX-V:RCN), Canada's leading supplier of Broadband Solutions for Business™, today announced the resignation of David Buffett as President and CEO and the appointment of Paul Healy as the interim President and CEO.

Mr. Healey is an experienced telecommunications leader having held executive positions at both BCE and Rogers Communications including President Bell Canada, Western Canada. Mr. Healey's most recent role was as President & CEO of a national franchise growth company. Mr. Healey's appointment is effective August 30, 2011.

“On behalf of the Board I'd like to thank David Buffett for his efforts and contributions to Radiant over the past five years,” said Don Calder, Chairman of Radiant. “We believe that with a strong customer base, a superior product portfolio and exceptional service Radiant is extremely well positioned in the small and medium enterprise arena. Paul Healey has tremendous experience and is well versed in the Canadian market. He is an exceptional results driven leader and is a perfect fit to accelerate Radiant's growth and success.”
